

Residential School Alumni Network, workshop

Developing staff and retaining talents in the University of the future: leadership, partnership and professional service career routes

Thursday, 13 June 2024

14:15 - 16:00, HUMANE Annual Conference, Amsterdam

Moderation by two Steering Committee Members:

- Neil Mc Gillivray, Chief Operating Officer, the Bayes Centre, University of Edinburgh, UK
- Bart van de Laar, Programme Leader International Affairs, Utrecht University, NL

The workshop will focus on “Developing staff and retaining talents in the University of the future: leadership, partnership and professional service career routes”. It will be organised as follows:

- Introduction to the workshop and to the theme
- Icebreaking networking session

Moderation by two Steering Committee Members:

- Péter Fehér, Vice President for International Relations, Corvinus University, HU
- Erkki Raulo, Head of Services, Researcher Training, University of Helsinki, FI
- Keynote: “Developing and retaining professional services staff at Sheffield University”, Ian Wright, HR Director, and Helen Barlow, Associate HR Director, University of Sheffield, UK
- “A Graduate Leaders’ Programme to recruit staff for professional services: HE Leaders of the Future”, Will Chicken, Director of Professional Services, University of Edinburgh Business School, UK
- Discussion on key themes emerging (moderated by Neil McGillivray and Bart van de Laar)